COMMUNITY
MYLIFELINE.ORG

MyLifeLine, part of the Cancer Support Community, connects cancer patients and caregivers with their family, friends, & others like them for social and emotional support.

Our unique, online platform provides free cancer-specific resources and services to empower patients on their journey.

Our mission is to ease the burden of cancer through support, inspiration, and encouragement so patients and caregivers can focus on what is most important - healing.

Research has shown that outcomes for cancer patients can be improved when they have a strong support community.
